The Magic Sun Square

The Amazing Sun Square Prophecy and Heavenly Signs Heralding the Rapture

Since early 2007, people have been asking me if I think there is any prophetic significance to the numbers 11, 111, and 1111. Since this has not been an isolated phenomenon, I have sought counsel from Yahweh's Spirit in prayer for insight into the meaning of these numbers and how I should interpret them in regard to Bible prophecy. Since then, Yahweh has shown me some amazing 111 connections that are astounding proof that we are in the Last Days before the Rapture and Tribulation. Thus far, here is what I have discovered about the significance of these repetitions of the number 1.

In 2007, a friend of mine alerted me to the significance of the number 111 by showing me a magic number square that he felt had a connection to the Great Pyramid or Pillar of Enoch. This number square, which is sometimes called the "Magic Square of the Sun," features the numbers 1 through 36 in six rows of six numbers each in a specific non-sequential pattern, as shown in the table. With its 6 rows and 6 columns, this number square is reflective of the 66 books of the Bible and adds up to 111 no matter which direction you add the rows or columns, which suggests a connection to the triune nature of the God of the Bible.

Also interesting about this number square is the fact that it features the number 36, which is the number of decan constellations in the Zodiac, each of which has been assigned 10 degrees on the 360 degree circle of the Zodiac since the dawn of time. This magic square can therefore be associated with the Zodiac, which serves as the Twelve Houses of the Sun, and also represents the Twelve Tribes of Israel. Even more fascinating, when the numbers of the Magic Sun Square are connected by straight lines in sequential order, they form a nearly perfect outline of the Pillar of Enoch with some of its interior passage angles. In addition, the resulting diagram shows a heavenly pyramid rising above it in reverse - as if it was showing the Pillar of Enoch's connection to heavenly realms.

When the 6 rows and 6 columns of this 6 X 6 Magic Square are added up, they can equal $12 \times (1+1+1)$ or 12×3 , which equals 36. Some people have also pointed out that the sum of all six rows or columns equals the ominous number 666. In addition, when the numbers 1 through 36 in the Magic Square are added to each other, they add up to the number 666. However, this does not take the sum of the two center diagonals into consideration, both of which add up to 111, or the sum of each of the six rows or columns, which also equal 111 or 3! In essence, then, the Sun Square equally divides into two groups of 777 NOT 666, and 7 is a holy biblical number connected to the End of the World and the fullness of Christ's salvation. Interestingly, the two diagonals connecting the four corners of the square and that each equal 111 form an "X" or cross over the six rows and six columns that add up to 666, suggesting the fact that the whole world is filled with sinners who are fallen and in need of redemption. Uncannily, it also alludes to the fact that Yahshua died on a cross for the sins (or evil, as suggested by 666) of the whole world. Furthermore, the whole world was redeemed by Yahshua's shed blood and all those who have accepted His sacrifice will be represented in His Kingdom, which is indicated by the number 7 and the number 777.

Magic Sun Square's Angular Proportions Possibly Incorporated into the Pillar of Enoch's Design

Adding the number of the twelve rows and columns to the two diagonals, the number 111 can be derived 14 times in this Magic Square, and the 14th Age that is to come after the Six Great Creation Days or Ages, the Six Great Days or Ages of mankind's works, and the 13th Age of the Millennial Rule of Christ will be everlasting! Now, $(1+1+1) \times 14 = 42$, which signifies 42 of the 48 cities that once belonged to the Levites in the ancient kingdom of Israel before it was divided. The six not counted here are the 6 cities of refuge in Israel - where people wrongly accused of murder and other crimes punishable by death could flee to find unconditional sanctuary. Now, an intriguing part of this Magic Sun Square is the fact that the six cities of refuge are likely not counted because, in the 14th Everlasting Age to come, there will be no need for cities of refuge! This is because no one will sin anymore, and no one will be falsely convicted of any crime ever again.

Fascinatingly, the numbers 9, 11, 12, 36, 66, 111, 666, and 777 that are found in the Magic Sun Square are all connected to the fullness of time as envisioned in the completion of one circuit around a circle divided into four ages. These four ages are inferred via the four fixed signs of the Zodiac and the four sides and corners of the Magic Sun Square. They were also graphically described by Daniel's interpretation of Nebuchadnezzar's dream of a giant statue made up of four metals that signified the four successive God-defying, humanistic kingdoms of this world that would exist from his era to the Messiah's coming as King of kings, which was represented by the stone from Heaven that crushed the giant idol's feet (Daniel 2:26-47).

As already stated, there is a sinister connection to 666 that overshadows the positive elements of the Magic Sun Square's connection to the number 111. Because 666 is the number of the Beast in the Book of Revelation (Rev. 13:18), I was not surprised when, on September 12th, 2008 (one day after September 11th, the day when our nation's worst terrorist attack on record occurred), a Metrolink commuter train with the identifying number 111 crashed in Los Angeles that caused 25 deaths (including the ARAB Muslim train operator) and 135 injuries. Though no one ever reported that this was a terrorist attack, there is virtually no doubt in my mind that it was.

It also sheds an ominous light on the fact that this current session of the Congress of the United States is the 111th in the history of the USA and it will be shaping American policy until January 3rd, 2011, when this 111th Congress will end its last session. Now, because 111 signifies God's sovereign triune power and glory, it also suggests that this wayward Congress is acting within God's will. So, though this Congress is NOT acting in a godly fashion, it is God's will that they should behave this way in order to bring in the reign of the Antichrist, whose number is 666. In addition, the fact that this is the 111th Congress is meant to serve as a sign to all believers that their redemption and preservation in the Rapture is imminent!

Nonetheless, this is hard for most of us to see because this current Congress is filled with liberal (i.e. relatively anti-liberty and anti-biblical) politicians that have been virtually unrestricted in passing unconstitutional and immoral bills into law that have the potential of destroying the Liberty that our Christian Founding Fathers wished to protect. In fact, the current direction of the US government threatens to cripple our economy even more and cause massive misfortune and unrest. What's worse, a continuing show of weakness on the part of our government and economy has already inspired our international enemies (including Iran, Russia, China and North Korea) to be bold enough to slight and threaten our country as well as Israel. This suggests that one or more of the many nations that hate the USA and Israel may soon attack this land with swift and lethal force - potentially killing millions of unprotected Americans and causing horrific destruction to personal property and irreversible damage to the environment.

The fact that we are swiftly approaching the Great Tribulation is also found in the prophecies of the Irish Catholic Archbishop Saint Malachy, who lived from 1094 to 1148 and was considered to be a seer. Before we discuss Malachy's predictions, however, note that the sum of the year that Malachy was born in (1094) and the year that he died (1148) both add up to 14, which is the number representing our eternity with Christ in the New Heaven and New Earth! Also note that 1148 could be a code number for the United States, which had 48 states for a time before adding two more states that may be signified by the two 1's in 1148. In addition, these two states that were added before 1960 are both on the 150th west parallel, which is directly opposite to the 30th east parallel marking the location of the Great Pyramid of Giza representing Christ. This suggests a connection between these two states and the Antichrist, and the implications of this highly significant fact are discussed thoroughly in my book "The Language of God in History."

Now, Saint Malachy prophesied that there would be 112 Popes before the end of the world, with the last Pope symbolically identified as "Peter the Roman." Saint Malachy said this last Pope would feed his flock through many tribulations (i.e. the Great Tribulation). Fascinatingly, Malachy called the 111th Pope and forerunner to Peter the Roman by the symbolic name "Olivetis Gloriosus" in Latin, meaning Olive's Glory. Right Now, Pope Benedict the 16th is the 111th Pope, and this reference to the Olive is almost certainly a reference to the Pope's name as well as his prophetic role. This is because the expression "Olive's Glory" represents the Olive tree branch symbol of the Benedictine order that was started by St. Benedict, whose name became the papal name of the current Pope. In addition, as a potential peace-maker, Pope Benedict may help the Antichrist set up his false peace treaty with Israel that will end in disaster during the reign of the 112th Pope called Peter the Roman.

There are also several more mundane connections to the numbers 11, 111, and 1111 that have come to my attention. Recently, a Christian friend contacted me because of an incident she had when studying the Scriptures one day. While reading Matthew 27:46, she suddenly thought of the Pillar of Enoch Ministry upon reading the Aramaic expression of Yahshua on the Cross: "And about the ninth hour Jesus cried out with a loud voice, saying, "Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?" that is, "My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?" When she saw the "Eli, Eli" in Yahshua's lament, she immediately envisioned the number 11 or 111 in relation to the word "Eli," which is a divine title for our heavenly Father that is quite linear in appearance. In addition, she thought of the number 1 as a symbol for a pillar and this is where my ministry comes into play. As shown on my Pillar of Enoch Ministry web site, the site's graphics feature the three pyramids at Giza in Egypt, and these pyramids can be seen as a set of three pillars or 1's that represent Yahshua, His crucifixion, His Resurrection, and His Bride, the True Church. The pyramids at Giza therefore symbolize the number 111.

Interestingly, Yahshua uttered His expression of lament to His Father at the ninth hour while hanging on a cross between two robbers who were crucified with Him on a rocky hill. One of these robbers was repentant and asked Christ for forgiveness, while the other was defiant and mocked Yahshua. This is suggestive of the fact that the Two House Church of Judah (Messianic believers) and Ephraim (Gentile believers) are living in the ninth hour amidst perilous times and are surrounded by defiant mockers. Intriguingly, the number 9 represents Divine Judgment and this is the year 2009, the ninth year of this seventh millennium since the Fall of Adam. Incidentally, if you add up the numbers 2 + 9 in this year, it equals 11! The three crosses of Calvary therefore allegorically signify three spiritual communities on the Earth today. The community connected to Christ's Cross is obviously the True Church of born-again believers.

Could the numbers 11, 111 and 1111 also have another prophetic connection to the Giza and Dahshur pyramids, which could be rising to prominence this year through the teachings in my books? After all, the two pyramids at Dahshur that signify the horns of Taurus and the two half tribes of Joseph are like a symbolic number 11. In addition, the Giza Pyramids mimic the three belt stars of the constellation Orion, which represents Christ and His Crucifixion. The Giza Complex has a repetition of three times three pyramids. It is therefore as if the three big pyramids at Giza and their two sets of three small auxiliary pyramids are meant to signify a triple occurrence of the number 111. Now if we multiply 111 by 3, we get 333, and 3+3+3 equals 9, the number of Divine Judgment. Incidentally, the number sequence 1111 may also signify the three biggest pyramids at Giza plus the Great Sphinx, which is a type of pillar connected to other constellations in the heavens that signify Yahshua.

But, by far the most remarkable connection between the Giza Pyramid Complex and the number 111 hidden in the Magic Sun Square is found in the number 37. You see, like the obelisks in Egypt, all pyramids were representations of the rays of the Sun, and were connected to the Sun god. In Egypt's case, the Sun god was a dim reflection of the one triune God of light and love named Yahweh - a name that signifies the three Persons of the Trinity: The Father, the Holy Spirit, and the Son who created the Sun. Perhaps this is why 111 divided by three equals 37, which is a number connected to the rays of the Sun.

Sunlight is represented by the number 37 because it contains three primary colors: red, blue, and yellow. Furthermore, these three primary colors of light are blended together to form the three secondary colors: green, orange, and violet. These six colors can all be seen when sunlight is refracted in a prism. Finally, when these six colors of light are perfectly blended together, they form white, which serves as a seventh visible color and signifies the perfection and oneness of God. Hence, there are 3 primary colors that are blended to form the 7 main colors of visible light. Now, when 3 and 7 are added together, they equal 10, and $1 + 0 = 1$, which is the number defining the one triune God Yahweh, who manifests Himself in 3 Persons, and has 7 archangels watching over the Seven Ages of men. Incidentally, only terrestrial pigments form black when mixed together, which shows the current inferiority of the earthly world over the spiritual world to come, when every person will be immortally clothed with the white light of the Shekinah Glory of God forever! At that time, we will all be clothed in a multicolor rainbow coat like the one Joseph once wore as a symbol of His father's high regard and love.

Sun Square's 37 Cross

The Sun number 37 is represented six times in a hidden t-shaped cross within the Magic Sun Square. First, when the four central numbers of the square are added diagonally, they equal 37. In addition, the two central numbers on each side of the square equal 37 when added together. The 12 integers forming this cross over the square has a similar meaning to the square's two center diagonals, which feature six numbers each and a total of 12 integers in the two diagonals. Since the four central numbers equal 37 when added diagonally, and both crosses are made up of 12 integers, this shows their connection to the diagonal cross, to the Sun and to Yahshua - who died on two crossed beams to redeem a people unto Himself!

Both crosses on the Sun Square feature the sum of 6 times 37, which is 222. Likewise, there are six points on a Star of David, which has a Zodiac connection. In addition, there were six cities of refuge among the 48 Levite cities in Israel that symbolized the salvation and forgiveness offered by Christ. Now, if we count the three times 37 in each row and column equaling 111, there are 36×37 . Added to the 6×37 formed by the diagonal cross and the 6×37 formed by the hidden t-shaped cross, there are 48 repetitions of the number 37 in the Magic Sun Square! This equals the number of all the constellations in the ancient Zodiac, which had 12 major Sun Signs with 3 minor decan signs assigned to each, and $4 \times 12 = 48$.

Now, in the Zodiac, one of the 12 major signs is considered to be a symbol of evil. Perhaps that is why the Sun Square features many repetitions of 11 and 111, but fewer repetitions of the number 12. The Zodiac sign of Scorpio is connected to the Tribe of Dan and the Antichrist, whose number is 666. Therefore, the number 11 signifies the 11 remaining Zodiac signs that are connected to the 11 Tribes of Israel that will be represented in the Rapture and First Resurrection. Nonetheless, just as the number 12 and 48 figure in the calculations of the Sun Square, so too will the Tribe of Dan be restored during the Millennial Rule of Christ and in eternity as per the Book of Ezekiel, Chapter 48, verses 1 and 2! Note here how the Tribes of Israel during the Millennial Rule of Christ are discussed in the chapter of Ezekiel that shares the exact number of constellations that were envisioned in the ancient Zodiac! Besides the amazing number verification God has placed in His Word, the restoration of Dan in God's Kingdom shows how great the Father's mercy and love truly are toward His wayward earthly children.

In conspiracy circles, much has been said about the 11 in the date September 11th, 2001 as a symbol for the Twin Towers of the World Trade Center that were destroyed by Islamic terrorists. In my book "The Language of God in Prophecy," I noted that the Twin Towers in New York City were built in honor of Mammon, and were therefore like a modern Tower of Babel. Consequently, their destruction was symbolic of Yahweh's judgment not just on America - but on the entire world for loving money more than the one true God. The current international financial collapse and the dire changes being made by the US government that are against the US Constitution and biblical morality are another sign that America is being judged for loving Mammon, abandoning Yahweh and no longer welcoming God into our schools, hospitals, law courts, and government offices. Meanwhile, the US government continues to indebt and nationalize every economic sector of the country and is also threatening to nationalize the farming and medical communities. If this continues, the US federal government will soon resemble Russia and the European Union, and will be set up for an easy takeover by the Antichrist to come.

The table above reflects each month of the 364-day Pre-Flood year exactly as given in 1 Enoch, Chapter 72. Enoch divided one day from dusk to dusk into eighteen parts or "hours," and then indicated how many parts occurred in daylight and how many in darkness as the year progressed. The Four Quarters or Seasons were determined by the Equinoxes and Solstices, with the Spring Equinox ending the year and marking the beginning of the first month of the New Year. Each month was 30 days with an extra day at each Equinox and Solstice, giving the last month per Quarter 31 days. On the Enochian Clock, the Sun and Moon hands would not advance for 2 full days in order to "count" the 30th & 31st day. Each part or "hour" covered 2 decans of 10 degrees or 20 degrees (i.e. "minutes") on the Zodiacal Wheel.

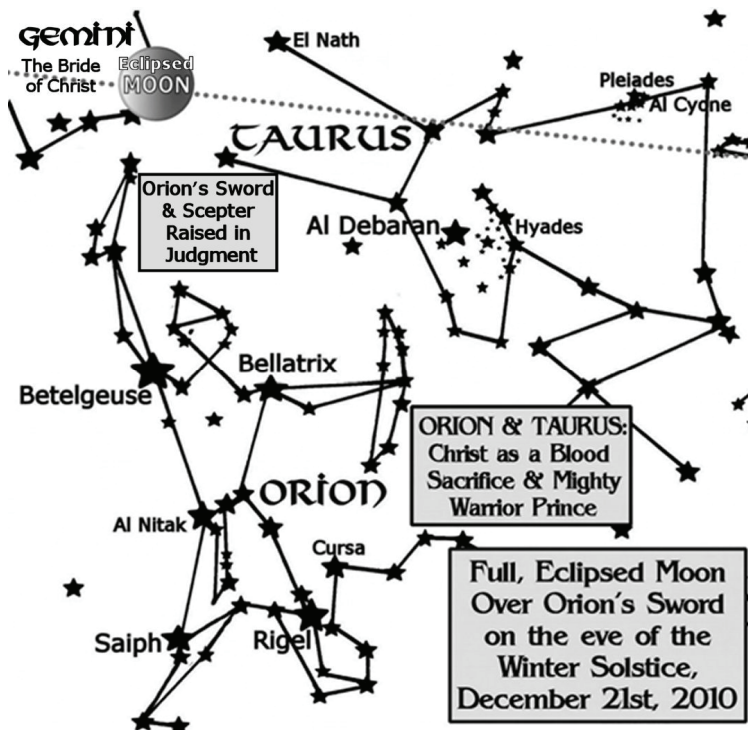

Thankfully, despite the fact that this judgment against the world will continue to get worse, there are many signs that a Rapture event will happen in the year 2011 or 2012. This snatching away of the saints will literally serve as a blessed and miraculous means of escape from the Tribulation for millions of born-again believers. As explained in my book "The Language of God in Prophecy," the year 2010 is the end date suggested by the number of Pyramid Inches from the Great Pyramid's entrance to the door of the Antechamber into the King's Chamber. It is also suggested in the numbering and prophetic meaning of Psalms 108, 109, and the Hallel Psalms 110 through 118, which appear to be connected to the years 2008 through 2018. In particular, Psalms 111 through 117, which are connected to 2011 through 2017, may mark the seven years of the Tribulation.

As will be shown in the coming late 2010 revision of my book "The Language of God in Prophecy," three Total Lunar Eclipses that will occur in Taurus (i.e. the Raging Tribulation Bull trampling the nations!) between December 2010 and December 2011 could be marking the first year of the Tribulation! This triplet of Blood Red Moons (1+1+1!) begins with a Blood Moon Eclipse that will be visible over Hawaii (in the Scorpio Meridian of the Earth exactly opposite the Taurus Meridian!) and Easter Island on December 21st, 2010 (see the illustration on the next page) and could mark the beginning of the Tribulation period. The second Total Lunar Eclipse in Taurus will occur on June 15th, 2011 - only three days after Pentecost on June 12th, 2011 and will be clearly visible over the Middle East including Israel (in the Taurus Meridian), Russia and Asia.

The third and final Blood Moon in Taurus will occur on December 10th, 2010, again visible over the Scorpio Meridian indicating the ground zero point marked by the Aztec Sun Calendar that was found in Mexico near the Teotihuacán archeological site. This site has impressive pyramids that are connected to the Gospel in the Stars surrounding the constellation Orion in Taurus the Tribulation Bull! These meridians and their connection to the Aztec and Mayan Calendars are discussed in my latest book "The Language of God in History" and in the revised version of "The Language of God in Prophecy." Supporting the view that these Blood Moons are tied to the first year of the seven-year Tribulation period, the first year of the Tribulation suggested by the Great Pyramid and the Hallel Psalms is 2011. According to the Jewish Calendar, their 2011 religious year officially begins on Nissan 1 or April 5th, 2011 - and Jews began their civil year on Yom Teruah or the Feast of Trumpets, which occurred on September 9th, 2010. Fascinatingly, April 5th is the same day in 1722 that Easter Island was discovered, and it may also be the true beginning of the Jewish Year 5771 that corresponds to our year 2011. Even more fascinatingly, this year is prophetically tied to Psalm 111, which is prophetically tied to the first year of the Tribulation period.

One of the things that confuse people concerning the timing of the first Rapture is the insistence among Messianic Jews that the Rapture is tied to the autumn Feast of Trumpets, which is Rosh Hashanah in that it is the beginning of the Jewish civil year. However, the facts are that God's year or the Jewish sacred year does not start in the autumn but in the spring with the New Moon or first day of the first Jewish Lunar month called Nissan or Aviv/Abib, which always falls 14 days before Passover. In fact, upon correcting a chart I did in my book "The Language of God in History" shown above that depicts the Pre-Flood year, it dawned on me that the New Year prior to the Flood also began in the spring on the first day of the first month, which was one day after the New Moon that occurred in tandem with the Spring Equinox prior to the Flood. This means that Noah's Flood occurred in the second month called Iyar in the spring season in the Northern Hemisphere, and not in the eighth month called Heshvan in the autumn.

But could it be that the Spring Equinox prior to the Flood actually did mark the autumn for the most populated half of the world? If a 180-degree flip of the Earth's poles occurred at the time of the Flood as I hypothesize in my Language of God series books, then what we consider the Northern Hemisphere would have been located where the Southern Hemisphere now is prior to the Flood, and it is autumn in the Southern Hemisphere when we are celebrating spring in the Northern Hemisphere! Fascinatingly, there is evidence that a New Moon would have fallen on the Spring Equinox prior to the Flood and that this occurred on THE LAST DAY or 31st day of the 12th month called Adar. So, if we assume that the righteous antediluvian ancestors of the Jews followed some portions of the rituals associated with the Mosaic Law, this would have been the last day of the year and a day that the Shofar would have been blown since it was also the day of a New Moon!

So, rather than throw away the theory that the Last Trumpet refers to the Feast of Trumpets and that the Rapture will occur on this day, I have embraced the idea that there may be two Raptures - one in relation to the spring and one in relation to the autumn! Furthermore, I believe that the first Rapture will occur in relation to but not necessarily on Passover. More specifically, I believe the first Rapture will be connected to the time of the Firstfruits offering in the Temple, which has a 50-day fulfillment window! This is because this offering marked the first day of the first of seven weeks counted to Pentecost or the 50th day from the Firstfruits offering. Furthermore, the Firstfruits offering did NOT fall on the day after Passover but on the first day after the regular Sabbath during Passover Week or the Feast of Unleavened Bread. So I am talking about the Pentecost Sunday followed by Western Christianity, not the Jewish Shavuot, which is kept on the wrong day!

Meanwhile, I also believe that the second Rapture will occur in relation to but not necessarily on the Feast of Trumpets at the mid-point of the Tribulation period. In fact, it may occur in relation to the Feast of Sukkot or Tabernacles in 2014, as described in my related article "Come Up Here and Come Away!". For clarity's sake, I highly recommend that anyone reading this article also read that article, and vice versa. Here is a link to access the PDF and HTML versions of that article at my POEM web site:

"Come Up Here and Come Away! - Clues to the Timing of the Rapture:"

<http://pillar-of-enoch.com/essays/index.html#Maranatha>

I also want to caution everyone that it is possible that I am wrong in assuming that there are two Raptures and that there will only be one Rapture. If so, I suspect that it will not occur until the autumn of 2014. Now, the reason that the Rapture is associated with Rosh Hashanah or the Feast of Trumpets is partly because Scripture connects the sounding of a trumpet to both the Feast of Trumpets and the Rapture:

"Speak to the children of Israel, saying: 'In the seventh month, on the first day of the month, you shall have a Sabbath rest, a memorial of blowing of trumpets, a holy convocation. You shall do no customary work on it; and you shall offer an offering made by fire to the LORD (Yahweh)...' 'Also the tenth day of this seventh month shall be the Day of Atonement. It shall be a holy convocation for you; you shall afflict your souls, and offer an offering made by fire to the LORD (Yahweh).'" - Leviticus 23:24-27

In this description of the Feast of Trumpets or Yom Teruah, the trumpets are to be sounded on a day of rest similar to the regular Saturday Sabbath. This holy day is to feature the blowing of the Shofar during worship services. However, what most people don't know is that the Shofar was and still is also blown at every New Moon or beginning of the Jewish Lunar month and on all the major Feast Days of Yahweh. The Shofar is an unusual trumpet made from the horns of rams that are genetically similar to the rams offered in sacrifice in Temple times. Perhaps this is why the Apostle Paul and the author of Revelation foresaw the Rapture as symbolically tied to the last sounding of the Shofar on Rosh Hashanah:

"Behold, I tell you a mystery: We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed - in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed." - 1 Corinthians 15:51-52

"After these things I looked, and behold, a door standing open in heaven. And the first voice which I heard was like a trumpet speaking with me, saying, 'Come up here, and I will show you things which must take place after this.'" - Revelation 4:1

In these Scriptures, we are told that believers will be transformed from mortal to immortal beings in the twinkling of an eye at the Last Trumpet, which is suggestive of the Shofar sounded on Rosh Hashanah, but is also tied to the raising up and Rapture of the Two Witnesses in the middle of the Tribulation period, which happens with the command to "Come Up Here!" in Revelation Chapter 11, verse 12. This is just before the Seventh or Last Trumpet of God's Judgment and Wrath is sounded in Revelation Chapter 11, verse 15.

In Revelation Chapter 4, verse 1, at the divine command: "Come Up Here!", John the Revelator was taken up to Heaven and was shown what would transpire on Earth during the Tribulation period. So, it is also possible that those who partake in the 1st Rapture will view what is transpiring upon the Earth during the Tribulation from a lofty heavenly place of safety in the presence of our beloved Savior and King Yahshua. Meanwhile, many on Earth will be knocking frantically on that closed door to Heaven (Luke 13:25) after this first Rapture! This is why there may be a 2nd Rapture just before the Bowls of God's Wrath are poured out in the last half of the Tribulation.

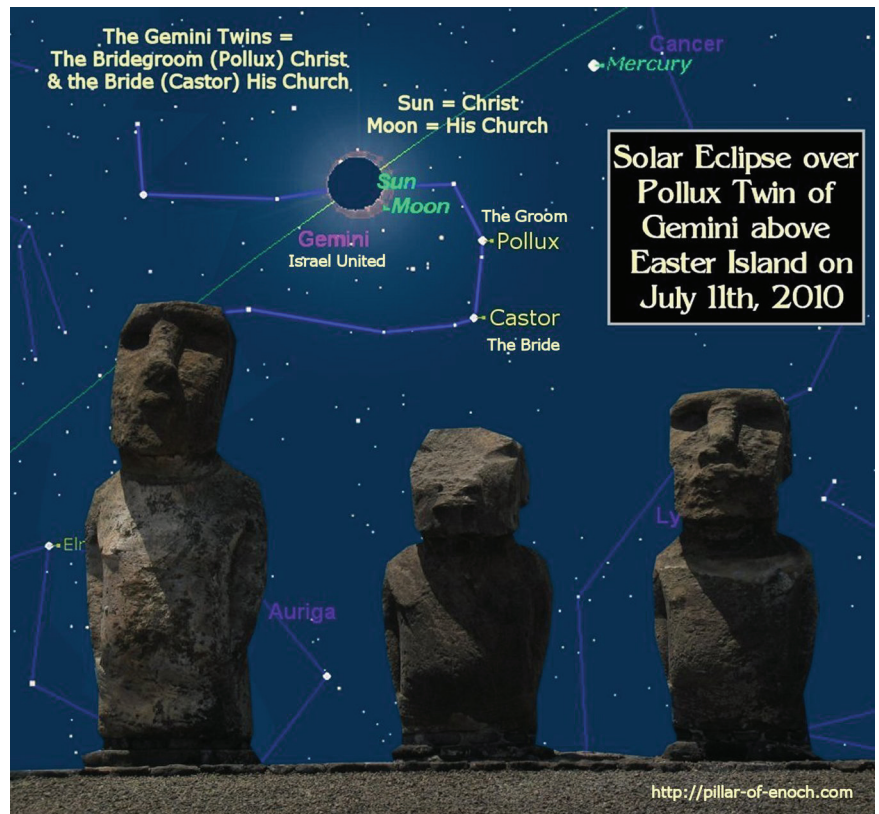

The Parable of the Ten Virgins or Wise and Foolish Virgins clearly depicts a Rapture event. This is seen when only five of ten virgins that are scheduled to accompany the Bride of Christ to the Wedding of the Lamb in Heaven are initially found worthy. Meanwhile, the door leading to the heavenly Wedding Feast is shut on the other five virgins as Yahshua declares "I do not know you" (Matthew 25:12). In other words, though the five foolish virgins are technically righteous and holy, they are nonetheless found unworthy because they are not truly born-again spiritually with the indwelling presence of the Holy Spirit. As a result, they have no real personal relationship with Yahshua their Messiah, so they are unknown to Him and vice versa. This would apply to many Christians with only a legalistic understanding of their faith as well as to many Jews who have not accepted Yahshua's Messiah-ship and gift of Grace and the Holy Spirit.

On the tenth day after the first day of trumpet-blowing on Rosh Hashanah or the Feast of Trumpets, the solemn Day of Atonement (i.e. Yom Kippur) occurs, and this day of lament and sorrow is connected to the year before the Tribulation period. However, when the Rapture occurs, there will be many people all over the Earth who will be mourning and suffering deep sorrow like they should have before then, but were too spiritually blind and/or backslidden to be ready when Yahshua first comes for His Bride and her virgin handmaidens. At that time, these deeply repentant and newly born-again believers will either know that they have been left behind by Christ because their names were not written in the Book of Life (Revelation 13:8), or they will still be lost and merely mourning the loss of many of their loved ones that will vanish without a trace.

According to the Scripture numbers wizard Bonnie Gaunt, September 11th is the 254th day in any given non-leap year. Also, if you add the integers in the number 254 together, you get the number 11. In addition, there are 111 days left until the end of the Solar Year from that date. Fascinatingly, September 11th was not only the date of the Terrorist attack on the World Trade Center, but it was also the possible birthday of the Messiah Yahshua on Rosh Hashanah in 3 BC and the beginning of the Jewish civil year 2011 that may be the year when the Rapture may occur.

Now, if the fall of Adam and Eve did occur in 4003 BC as my Biblical Chronology suggests (and not in 4004 BC as Bishop Usher supposed), then the Rosh Hashanah that fell on September 11th, 1999 was the beginning of the first Jewish civil year in the Seventh Millennium that is connected to the Millennial reign of Yahshua on Earth. However, since Yahshua's kingdom has not yet begun, we can safely assume that we must be in an intermediate period of divine grace and mercy that God is granting between the sixth and seventh millenniums. In fact, in 2004, I was shown that this is indeed the case in a prophetic word of knowledge that I received during the Days of Awe or nine days that fall between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur every year. In this prophetic word, I was told by the Holy Spirit that the years 2000 through 2010 are prophetically connected to the ten days between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur or the Day of Atonement, and that 2011 would be the first year of the Tribulation period that would correspond to the first of the five days between Yom Kippur and the Feast of Tabernacles or Sukkot. This connection of the Tribulation to the five days leading to the Feast of Tabernacles suggests that the Tribulation will end at least one year earlier than the Jewish Civil New Year on September 20th, 2017, or the Rosh Hashanah of the Jewish Sacred New Year on Nissan 1 or March 17th, 2018.

Due to this word of knowledge, it is clear to me now that Yahweh God had always planned to give mankind an extra 10 years of divine mercy and Grace between the 1st of Nissan or real Rosh Hashanah on April 6th, 2000 and the 1st of Nissan on April 5th in 2011, which will mark the true sacred end of the Yom Kippur year 2010. At this point, it's interesting to note again that Easter Island was discovered in the West on April 5th. This date can be denoted by the numbers 4 and 5, which equals 9 - the number of Judgment! Furthermore, several major heavenly End-Time signs via Lunar and Solar Eclipses are associated with Easter Island beginning with the Solar Eclipse directly over Easter Island on the 1st of Av on July 11th, 2010 and the Lunar Eclipse over Easter Island on April 4th, 2014, which is not only the first day of Passover that year but the eve of Easter Sunday, April 5h - the same day that Easter Island was discovered. This tiny, remote island in the South Pacific was the best viewing location of the Solar Eclipse that occurred on July 11th, 2010 on the 1st of Av and - as shown in my related Rapture article "Come Up Here and Come Away!", this Solar Eclipse is a highly prophetic End Time Sign in the Heavens.

Now, when I first wrote this Magic Sun Square article in 2008, I was under the mistaken assumption that the first Rapture was connected to the autumn Rosh Hashanah or Feast of Trumpets rather than Firstfruits and Pentecost. In 2010, Rosh Hashanah was on September 9th and 10th. So, I reasoned, if the Rapture were to occur around midnight on September 9th or 10th that year, then the next minute would surely be a 9-11 wake up call for the rest of the world, and $9+1+1=11$. I also assumed that this might be why our Adonai Yahshua suggested that He would come for His Church at midnight in His "Parable of the Ten Virgins:"

"And at midnight a cry was heard: 'Behold, the bridegroom is coming; go out to meet him!' Then all those virgins arose and trimmed their lamps. And the foolish said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.' But the wise answered, saying, 'No, lest there should not be enough for us and you; but go rather to those who sell, and buy for yourselves.' And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the wedding; and the door was shut." - Matthew 25:6-10

Could this be what happens on the day of the first Rapture? Will Yahshua our Bridegroom come for His Bride the True Church and her five virgin attendants around midnight on that day? At that time, will Yahshua or one of His archangels cry out in imitation of the sounding of a trumpet as in Revelation 4:1? Furthermore, will the heavenly door spoken of in Revelation 4:1 be shut right after the Rapture has taken place? If so, that day will be a far worse 911 emergency wake-up call for the world than September 11th, 2001 was. Incidentally, after dusk on the first day of Rosh Hashanah in 2010, it was the start of the Jewish civil year 5771, which corresponds with the Gregorian year 2011 and the Jewish sacred year beginning on April 5th, 2011. Could the Jewish sacred New Year of 2011 mark the actual year and season when the first Rapture will occur? If so, it's interesting to note that Pentecost marks the close of the spring season via Jewish reckoning and the beginning of the summer, just as the Summer Solstice marked that transition for the righteous Sethites like Enoch prior to the Flood and still does for the Western World today.

Interestingly, the Bible passage that relates to the timing of the 2nd Mid-Tribulation Resurrection in conjunction with the Rapture of the Two Witnesses (and possibly the resurrection and Rapture of the five virgins that are left behind in the Parable of the Ten Virgins) are in Revelation, Chapter 11, verses 11 and 12, which read:

"Now after the three-and-a-half days the breath of life from God entered them, and they stood on their feet, and great fear fell on those who saw them. And they heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, 'Come up here.' And they ascended to heaven in a cloud, and their enemies saw them." - Revelation 11:11-12

The intriguing fact that this passage starts at Revelation 11:11 is no accident, and certainly explains why so many believers have constantly been seeing three or four ones strung together in dollar amounts on receipts and on digital clocks for the past few years with increasing frequency. Even more fascinating is that fact that many other Bible passages relating to the First Resurrection and Rapture feature strings of 1's in them, as I will show a bit later in this article.

Before I continue, however, I want to point out that some of the dreams, visions and words of knowledge given via the Holy Spirit to other believers that I know appear to validate some of my ideas that they initially knew nothing about. For this reason, I firmly believe that many of us in the Body of Christ have prophetic gifts and are often called to validate the faith of those around us and carry it to new heights. No one is insignificant in God's Kingdom. Each one of us has something important to contribute to the Kingdom of God and fulfillment of God's will. In fact, some of my greatest discoveries have come through the seemingly small contributions of individuals who either needed someone to validate similar ideas, or who were sent to validate some of my own theories that felt Spirit-led but that I was uncertain about. One of these people was a fellow who told me about the Magic Sun Square and another was the lady who mentioned the connection of 111 with the 3 Giza pyramids signifying my ministry. These insights have given me valuable pieces of a complex prophetic puzzle. By sharing these ideas with me, each one of these people has broadened my own understanding of what God has been attempting to show me, and each one has become an invaluable part of my ministry in God's Kingdom.

My thoughts regarding the timing of the Rapture have also been deeply influenced by the prophetic words given to others. For example, early in 2008, a believer who is a policeman living in South Carolina contacted me in order to relay a dream in which he saw the date of the Rapture, but not the year. In that dream, he saw the date September 10th written in the sky. Since I knew this date had to be around the time of Rosh Hashanah or the Feast of Trumpets, I did a search to see when it was scheduled to occur over the next several years and discovered that the Feast of Trumpets was on September 9th and 10th in 2010. Since 2010 is also targeted by the Great Pyramid and the Hallel Psalms as the likely year before the Tribulation begins, I incorrectly assumed that the Rapture might occur then. But could it be that, since Yahshua insisted that no one but our heavenly Father Yahweh knows the exact day or hour that the Rapture will occur, this man was seeing the start date of the Jewish civil year that the Rapture would occur in, NOT the actual day of the Rapture? This is what I firmly believe today. Though it is only a belief and I could still be wrong, I and others I know have received words of knowledge, visions and dreams that insist that the Rapture is very, very near.

Another event that leads me to believe the Rapture cannot be far off happened to me on Palm Sunday on March 28th, 2010. As I was outside using a rake to clean out my perennial flower beds in preparation for their new spring growth, God spoke to me with another piece of the puzzle as to when the Rapture might occur. At the time, I had this almost overpowering sense that the world is living on borrowed time concerning God's coming Judgment and I wondered if gardening is what I should be focusing on or if God wanted me to pay attention to more important spiritual things. In order to get a sense of direction, I began to pray and ask God what I should be concerned with. All at once, I could feel the presence of the Holy Spirit and shortly after that, I heard the voice of God within my mind. This is when God clearly told me not to concern myself with such perishable things as gardening and planting my garden, but to focus only on the things of God that I had already built my ministry around, for the time for the final harvest was coming soon.

At the moment, I was moved to ask God if He could tell me when the Rapture would occur. He replied a few moments later with the cryptic phrase "Before the summer flowers bloom." At the time those words were spoken, my rake was resting in the flower bed where I had planted my oriental lilies - these lilies are the last summer flowers to bloom in my garden. They grow on tall spikes and their huge flower buds don't begin to open until mid-July and are not fully in bloom until early August. Now, since I assumed that the Rapture had to happen on or before September 9th and 10th, 2010, I wondered if God was letting me know that the Rapture could happen earlier - at a time closer to Pentecost. In fact, I had originally tied the Rapture to Pentecost or the Feast of Shavuot until the teachings of Messianic Jews that I had been influenced by led me to think that the Jewish Civil New Year on Rosh Hashanah or the Feast of Trumpets was the holy feast that the Rapture might occur on. However, from the very beginning after I shared this word, I warned those who followed my ministry that the word of knowledge I received could apply to 2011 or 2012, since God did not give me a year, but only a season of the year that corresponds to the season of Pentecost in the late spring or early summer.

Another word of knowledge that came from a believer with prophetic gifts told me recently that God gave him the date of June 14th as the beginning of His coming Judgment of the world in the Tribulation. This very godly man that I know said he received this word of knowledge from a powerful angel seen in a vision, and that this angel was likely none other than the archangel Raphael. Though this believer received this word in 2010, he was not given a year either so we are left to guess as to what year this divine Judgment will begin. Interestingly, however, Pentecost falls on June 12th in 2011, just two days before that judgment date.

Also interesting is the fact that the Jewish year 5770, which is connected to the year 2010, features the number five, which is connected to the completion of God's Creation of the Earth. Incidentally, the Great Pyramid, which signifies the Earth, has five sides in reference to its Creation number. This Jewish year also features the number 77, which signifies the number of generations that are to have passed between the fall of Adam and the Last Judgment. In fact, all the Jewish years connected to the Gregorian years 2010 through 2020 feature the number 77. Interestingly, the number 777 that figures in the Magic Sun Square appears in the Jewish year 5777, which is tied to the Gregorian year 2017 - the year that the Second Coming of Christ as King of kings may occur. However, since Yahshua warned that the days of the Tribulation must be shortened or no life would survive it, Yahshua may come at least a year before that - and maybe even two years prior.

Fascinatingly, as discussed in my book "The Language of God in History," there were 76 generations from Adam to Christ. This means that the final or 77th Generation is not going to be counted until the final generation that will live to see the fulfillment of all the prophecies concerning the Last Days at the end of this Age. Since the Last Days started with the rebirth of Israel as a nation in 1948, it appears that we are the terminal generation, and many of us will live to see and participate in the Rapture and the Second Coming of Christ.

As if in confirmation of this, there is a connection to the many 1's appearing in Magic Sun Square calculations that is connected to the Pillar of Enoch in the Book of Isaiah. For example, just as the Pillar of Enoch is a type of Bible in stone, the 66 chapters in the Book of Isaiah are connected to the 66 books in the Bible. Even more interestingly, Isaiah wrote an amazing prophetic passage pertaining to the Great Pyramid:

"In that day there will be an altar to the LORD (Yahweh) in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar to the LORD (Yahweh) at its border. And it will be for a sign and for a witness to the LORD of hosts (Yahweh Tsavout) in the land of Egypt..." - Isaiah 19:19-20

Besides giving a very accurate prophetic picture of the Pillar of Enoch's physical location and purpose, the numbering of the passage number 19:19 reflects the number 1 that is found repeatedly in the Magic Sun Square because $1 + 9 = 10$, and $1 + 0 = 1$. In fact, the numbering of this Scripture also reflects the time period in history when men finally had enough knowledge to begin to decipher the symbolic meaning of the Pillar of Enoch, and this was in the 19th Century AD. This suggests a real connection between Isaiah, the Pillar of Enoch and the Magic Sun Square.

This led me to seek out passages in the Book of Isaiah that feature repetitions of numbers 1, 3, 6, 9, and 11 that appear so often surrounding the Magic Sun Square and Pillar of Enoch. Upon doing so, this is what I found - beginning in Isaiah, Chapter 11, verse 1:

"There shall come forth a Rod from the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots. The Spirit of the LORD (Yahweh) shall rest upon Him, the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, the Spirit of counsel and might, the Spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD (Yahweh)." - Isaiah 11:1-2

This Scripture suggests that the Pillar of Enoch is a symbol for the stem of Jesse. It also implies that the Great Pyramid's base, which the Magic Sun Square may signify, represents the messianic Branch that grew out of Jesse's roots, while the missing capstone represents our Messiah - who is not of this world but comes from above.

Isaiah 11:11-16 is another passage with a connection to the Great Pyramid and the Magic Sun Square because it is speaking of the peace that will form in the Two House Church of Judah and Ephraim. These two will come together as brothers at last during Christ's Millennial Rule. At that time, there will be no more hatred or prejudice between believing Jews or Gentiles, and they will love each other as two branches of the same family tree:

"It shall come to pass in that day that the LORD (Yahweh) shall set His hand again the second time to recover the remnant of His people who are left, from Assyria and Egypt, from Pathros and Cush, from Elam and Shinar, from Hamath and the islands of the sea. He will set up a banner for the nations, and will assemble the outcasts of Israel (i.e. the Lost Israelites), and gather together the dispersed of Judah (i.e. the Jews) from the four corners of the earth. Also the envy of Ephraim (i.e. the Gentile Church) shall depart, and the adversaries of Judah shall be cut off; Ephraim shall not envy Judah, and Judah shall not harass Ephraim. But they shall fly down upon the shoulder of the Philistines toward the west; together they shall plunder the people of the East; they shall lay their hand on Edom and Moab; and the people of Ammon shall obey them. The LORD (Yahweh) will utterly destroy the tongue of the Sea of Egypt; with His mighty wind He will shake His fist over the River, and strike it in the seven streams, and make men cross over dry-shod. There will be a highway for the remnant of His people who will be left from Assyria, as it was for Israel in the day that he came up from the land of Egypt." - Isaiah 11:11-16 (NKJ)

I believe that the six verses of Isaiah 11:11-16 are directly connected to the six verses of Isaiah 19:19-25, which pertain to the Great Pyramid as a restored temple to Yahweh that will be used during the Millennial Rule of Christ. Since this passage of Isaiah is connected to Isaiah 11:11-16, it seems logical to assume that they will be fulfilled within the same time period:

"In that day there will be an altar to the LORD (Yahweh) in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar to the LORD at its border. And it will be for a sign and for a witness to the LORD of hosts (Yahweh Tsavout) in the land of Egypt; for they will cry to the LORD (Yahweh) because of the oppressors, and He will send them a Savior and a Mighty One, and He will deliver them. Then the LORD (Yahweh) will be known to Egypt, and the Egyptians will know the LORD (Yahweh) in that day, and will make sacrifice and offering; yes, they will make a vow to the LORD (Yahweh) and perform it. And the LORD (Yahweh) will strike Egypt, He will strike and heal it; they will return to the LORD (Yahweh), and He will be entreated by them and heal them. In that day there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian will come into Egypt and the Egyptian into Assyria, and the Egyptians will serve with the Assyrians. In that day Israel will be one of three with Egypt and Assyria-- a blessing in the midst of the land, whom the LORD of hosts shall bless, saying, 'Blessed is Egypt My people, and Assyria the work of My hands, and Israel My inheritance.'" - Isaiah 19:19-25 (NKJ)

More specifically, since Isaiah 11:16 sees the highway in Isaiah 19:23 being made possible, it is clear that Isaiah 11:16 is referring to the results of the final Battle of Armageddon at the end of the Tribulation. When Yahshua returns to do battle, He will gather His Tribulation Saints among the Jews, Lost Israelites, and Gentiles from all over the world and transform them into immortal beings before the final onslaught of the wicked. Then the wicked armies surrounding Israel will be destroyed and the highway from Egypt to Assyria will be established in preparation for the joy and glory of the Millennial Kingdom. Now, if we look at the Magic Sun Square, which also symbolically refers to the Great Pyramid as an altar unto Yahweh, its columns seem to represent the root of Jesse or Judah while its rows signify the branches of Gentile and Israelite believers who will follow the Messiah who comes out of Judah. And overlying the entire square are those two crosses signifying our Messiah's death and resurrection so that He could be the first among many brothers to rise from the dead and live forever with God. So, it can clearly be seen that there is an amazing picture of Christ's Millennial Kingdom also locked away within the Magic Sun Square!

Intriguingly, as discussed in my article "Come Up Here and Come Away!", two series of Signs in the Heavens with very strong prophetic meaning that occurred in the summer of 2008, 2009 and 2010 appear to be pointing to the number 3 or 1+1+1 as well as to the summer season as a time of prophetic importance. In connection to the celestial nature of the Magic Sun Square, the last of three conjunctions between the Messiah planet Jupiter and the Bride of Christ planet Uranus occurs in the sign of Pisces over the Ephraimite Fish riding on the white horse Pegasus' back on January 6th, 2011, which just so happens to be the first day of the 11th Jewish month called Shevat! This amazing triple (1+1+1!) conjunction will occur on 1-6-2011, with the sum of the integers in that calendar date equaling 11. Furthermore, it will be 11-1-5771 on the traditional Jewish Lunar Calendar, again targeting the numbers 11 and 1 and the symbolism of the Pillar of Enoch! As revealed repeatedly in my Language of God Series Books, the three big pyramids at Giza in Egypt mimic the three belt stars of Orion that signify the three crosses erected at the time of the crucifixion of Christ! As such, they are a lasting memorial of Yahshua's sacrifice for our sins that was erected long before He was born, but that was certainly inspired by Yahshua in His pre-incarnate state of glory.

Even more amazingly, for the three years of 2008 thru 2010, there was a total Solar Eclipse on the 1st day of the Jewish 5th month of Av, which is in the middle of a three week period of Jewish mourning over the destruction of Jerusalem's Temple to Yahweh by the Romans. Furthermore, the last of these Solar Eclipses was best seen over Easter Island, which is a definite sign that God is coming to judge the world soon! These Solar Eclipses, as a symbolic blotting out of the Light of God (as seen in the Sun) and a darkening of the affairs of people and demons (as seen in the New Moon), suggests that a time of great mourning for the Jewish people and the world at large is coming soon and that God is calling people to seek His mercy through repentance and remorse before it is too late. In addition to the color illustrations of the July 11th, 2010 Solar Eclipse and the depiction of Jupiter and Uranus nearly in conjunction in Pisces over Pegasus as seen from Easter Island on the night before that eclipse in this article, I discuss these celestial events in more detail in my article: "Come Up Here and Come Away!". Therefore, I highly recommend reading that article in conjunction with this one to find out more about these astounding and prophetically powerful heavenly signs of Yahshua's soon return to govern the Earth in righteousness and truth.

Returning now to the coincidence of End Time Bible prophecies that have a connection to the number sequences 11, 111, or 1111, here is another passage in Isaiah that appears to have a legitimate connection with the Magic Sun Square and the Pillar of Enoch:

"Thus says the LORD (Yahweh): 'Heaven is My throne, and earth is My footstool. Where is the house that you will build Me? And where is the place of My rest?' " - Isaiah 66:1

This gives the allegorical meaning of the Giza pyramid complex, which mimics the stars in the constellation Orion on Earth as a symbol of God's footstool, while its heavenly counterpart signifies a highly important part of God's Throne. Thematically, this passage appears to be tied to Psalm 110, where Yahweh asks His Son Yahshua to sit enthroned at His Right Hand while He makes His enemies a footstool at Yahshua's feet. This suggests that Isaiah 66:1 is tied to the years 2010 and 2011. If so, Isaiah 66:2 may be connected to 2012, and so on. Uncannily, upon analyzing these passages, I found that they do bear a remarkable connection to consecutive events that have been prophesied to take place during the Tribulation period:

Isaiah 66:2. "For all those things My hand has made, and all those things exist," says the LORD (Yahweh). But on this one will I look: on him who is poor and of a contrite spirit, and who trembles at My word."

When the Rapture occurs, many people who are left behind will soon come to repent and will find salvation and rebirth in Christ. However, though these new believers will be humbled by their position as renegades aligned against the New World Order, God will provide places of safety for these fugitives in the wilderness places of the Earth. Meanwhile, the Jews are destined to sign a peace treaty between them, the Antichrist and the Arab world. In fact, the bargaining chip that may get the Israelis to agree to this treaty will be the internationalization of Jerusalem as the headquarters of the United Nations. However, the only way the Jews will agree to this is if they are offered a major concession in return, and that will likely be with their permission to rebuild their temple to Yahweh and begin sacrificial rites there once more:

Isaiah 66:3. (tied to 2013) "He who kills a bull is as if he slays a man; he who sacrifices a lamb, as if he breaks a dog's neck; he who offers a grain offering, as if he offers swine's blood; he who burns incense, as if he blesses an idol."

The preceding passage clearly suggests that Yahweh is going to be displeased with the rites being conducted in the new Temple in Jerusalem by the year 2013 because the Jews performing these rites will not recognize the risen Messiah Yahshua whom the sacrifices were always meant to represent in His role as a Suffering Servant. Since these sacrifices do not signify Yahshua's purpose to unbelieving Jews, the sacrifices are an abomination:

Isaiah 66:4. (tied to 2014) "Just as they have chosen their own ways, and their soul delights in their abominations, So will I choose their delusions, and bring their fears on them; because, when I called, no one answered, when I spoke they did not hear; but they did evil before My eyes, and chose that in which I do not delight."

Now, if the Tribulation actually begins on Nissan 1 on April 5th, 2011, three and a half years into the Tribulation period will be around the Feast of Trumpets in 2014, and Isaiah 66:4 suggests that the Antichrist and False Prophet will fool many with a great delusion around this time. This may be when the Antichrist enters the Temple in Jerusalem and claims to be a god. At that time, many unrepentant people will believe his lie, will proceed to worship and follow the Antichrist into killing all who refuse to worship him, and will thereby seal their everlasting punishment in Hell.

Isaiah 66:5. (tied to 2015) "Hear the word of the LORD (Yahweh), you who tremble at His word: Your brethren who hated you, who cast you out for My name's sake, said, 'Let the LORD (Yahweh) be glorified, that we may see your joy.' But they shall be ashamed."

Isaiah 66:5 suggests that by 2015, many Jews will be shocked into their senses by the Antichrist's open blasphemy of Yahweh, and they will finally believe that Yahshua is the Messiah. Meanwhile, the wicked Gentiles who hated the Jews and sought to destroy them will soon be confronted with their error, and they will be ashamed and terrified when they are rebuked and subdued by Yahshua Himself and His army of holy angels and resurrected saints:

Isaiah 66:6. (tied to 2016) "The sound of noise from the city! A voice from the temple! The voice of the LORD (Yahweh), who fully repays His enemies!"

Here we have the Antichrist's number 666 in Isaiah 66:6, which is tied to 2016 and Psalm 116 - the shortest chapter in the Bible. Though 2016 will technically be the sixth year of the Tribulation, Isaiah 66:6 suggests that Yahshua will return early in 2016 and abruptly end the Antichrist's reign of terror before its anticipated end in 2017, which is tied to Psalm 117 and just happens to be the middle chapter of the Bible. Could this be just one more sign the 2017 will see dawn of the Millennial Rule of Christ? The Tribulation may end before 2017 because Satan may have figured out when the Tribulation will be and he may have plans to annihilate not only the Jews and the rest of humanity but all life on Earth before Yahshua's return, just as Yahshua warned:

"Unless those days are shortened, no flesh would be saved; but for the elect's sake those days will be shortened." - Matthew 24:22

This is further suggested by the following verses proclaiming that Israel will be like a woman who gives birth without experiencing a long and painful labor. Could this mean that the Jews remaining on this planet at Yahshua's Second Coming will all be Messianics before the year 2017?

Isaiah 66:7-9. (tied to 2017) "Before she was in labor, she gave birth; before her pain came, she delivered a male child..." "Shall the earth be made to give birth in one day? Or shall a nation be born at once? For as soon as Zion was in labor, she gave birth to her children. Shall I bring to the time of birth, and not cause delivery?" says the LORD (Yahweh)."

This woman who gives birth suddenly and unexpectedly may signify that the Jews that remain alive until Yahshua's return will finally repent and recognize Yahshua as their true Messiah, and He will forgive them even while they mourn their rejection of Him. At that moment, these Jews will finally be born again and will gain the promise of everlasting life. In keeping with this theme, Isaiah 66:10-11 speaks of the joy and rejoicing in Jerusalem among all those who have loved the Jewish people and prayed for their salvation and deliverance:

Isaiah 66:10-11 (tied to 2018) "Rejoice with Jerusalem, and be glad with her, all you who love her; rejoice for joy with her, all you who mourn for her; That you may feed and be satisfied with the consolation of her bosom, that you may drink deeply and be delighted with the abundance of her glory."

Uncannily, the connection between the preceding passages in the Book of Isaiah, the Pillar of Enoch, and the Magic Sun Square is shared by the Book of Revelation. Revelation is similar to Isaiah in that they are both highly prophetic books. Both are also filled with imagery that is connected to the Gospel in the Stars and the Last Day. In addition, the number of chapters in both books are devisable by 11. Just as Isaiah has 66 chapters like the Bible has 66 books, the Book of Revelation has 22 chapters like the Hebrew alphabet has 22 letters. Furthermore, $66 + 22 = 88$, and 8 is a number signifying Yahweh God's eternal nature and unending perfection. This suggests that both books are prophetically tied to the total fulfillment and completion of Yahweh God's perfect will in history. This is borne out when the passages in Revelation that highlight the numbers 1 and 11 are examined. Here is the first of these passages:

"I was in the Spirit on the Lord's Day, and I heard behind me a loud voice, as of a trumpet, 11. saying, 'I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last,' and, 'What you see, write in a book and send it to the seven churches which are in Asia: to Ephesus, to Smyrna, to Pergamum, to Thyatira, to Sardis, to Philadelphia, and to Laodicea.' Then I turned to see the voice that spoke with me. And having turned I saw seven golden lampstands, and in the midst of the seven lampstands One like the Son of Man..." - Revelation 1:10-13

Fascinatingly, Revelation 1:11 is intimately connected with the meaning of the Great Sphinx that seems to act as a guardian of the Giza pyramid complex. As shown in "The Language of God" Book Series, the Sphinx is tied to the first and last signs of the ancient Zodiac, which were Leo and Virgo. In the Star Gospel, Virgo signifies Yahshua's First Advent as the Suffering Servant and Son of Man, while Leo represents Yahshua as the Lion of Judah and King of kings. The Sphinx therefore allegorically serves to signify Christ, who is the Alpha and the Omega, and the First and the Last! The Great Sphinx serves as a clue that the Pillar of Enoch and its associated pyramids are not ordinary tombs but sacred monuments that were built to an awesome and powerful God. As such, they serve as a gigantic temple that served as a forerunner to the temples built in Jerusalem. Uncannily, Revelation 11:1 speaks of one of these temples:

"Then I was given a reed like a measuring rod. And the angel stood, saying, 'Rise and measure the temple of God, the altar, and those who worship there. But leave out the court which is outside the temple, and do not measure it, for it has been given to the Gentiles. And they will tread the holy city underfoot for forty-two months. And I will give power to my two witnesses, and they will prophesy one thousand two hundred and sixty days, clothed in sackcloth.'" Revelation 11:1-3

Here in Revelation 11:1, the Temple to Yahweh that the Jews will build in Jerusalem and perform sacrifices in during the first three years of the Tribulation is divinely acknowledged. In addition, Revelation 11:2

proclaims that Jerusalem will be used as a Gentile stronghold for all of this time. It therefore may become the headquarters of the United Nations or the Antichrist's global government. Meanwhile, Revelation 11:3 indicates that the Two Witnesses will be supernaturally witnessing to the nations gathered in Jerusalem for three and a half years. As prophets, they will serve to be like a huge, irritating thorn in the Antichrist's side that he will not be able to rid himself of until God allows it. When God does, the Antichrist will find a way to murder the Two Witnesses, but not to destroy or move their bodies. Instead, their bodies will lay in the street and be mocked by all who see them until God intervenes again as indicated in Revelation 11:11-12 that was quoted earlier.

Revelation 11:11 describes the resurrection of the Two Witnesses and their ascension into heaven as being in full view of the entire world. Uncannily, this sort of world coverage of any event is only possible today with the advent of satellite and internet television, also indicating that we are very close to the time of the Rapture, Tribulation and Second Coming of Christ! This resurrection of the Two Witnesses is an amazing passage that serves as a reenactment of the first stage of the First Resurrection when the Father rose Yahshua from the dead and many saints with Him in the First Century AD (Matthew 27:52-53). It also serves as a miniature reenactment of the 1st and 2nd Rapture, when millions will rise from the dead and join Yahshua in Heaven. The 1st and 2nd Raptures will serve as the second and third stages of the First Resurrection, while the resurrection of the Tribulation martyrs that are to be beheaded for refusing to deny their faith in Christ will occur after the Tribulation and will be the fourth and final stage of the First Resurrection.

This suggests that the 111's and 11:11's that believers seem to be seeing everywhere lately are a rock-solid confirmation that we are living in the last generation and the second and third stages of the First Resurrection are coming soon, with a fourth one in view after that. This could also be why increasing numbers of believers are seeing four 1's strung together rather than three. Because the middle two of these resurrection experiences require God to lift people up off the face of the Earth and transform them as they travel straight up into Heaven, they serve as two pillars of a symbolic number 11 marking God's great mercy and love. This is the reason why people are seeing the numbers 11, 111 and 1111 as significant right now, and all the passages of the Bible that were explored in this teaching are connected in some way to the numbers 1, 11, 111, and 11:11. They are being singled out to prophetically indicate that one resurrection and Rapture event (at Yahshua's ascension into Heaven) has already taken place, two more are going to occur before the Great Tribulation and the Seven Bowls of God's Wrath are poured out, and one more will occur after the Battle of Armageddon.

I have written this teaching as a source of encouragement and comfort for all believers as we enter the final moments before the rise of the Antichrist, his coming false Peace treaty with Israel, and the Rapture.

As we await our Bridegroom's return, let us rejoice for our salvation in Yahshua Ha Mashiach!
