Dedication and Acknowledgements

This book is dedicated to all those saints who will live through, and die during the Great Tribulation. May this book serve as a guiding light to them - and a beacon of hope shining through the terrible darkness of that coming time of trouble.

Author’s Notes

In the Old Testament, whenever the expression “the LORD God” or “the LORD” is used, it actually says “Yahweh Elohim” or “Yahweh” in Hebrew. I have therefore chosen to use God’s Name Yahweh instead of the generic term “LORD” and the title Elohim instead of “God” in the expression “LORD God” and have restored the phrase “Yahweh Elohim” to all Bible quotations where it appears in the original Hebrew. In addition, I have chosen to use Christ’s Hebrew/Aramaic Name “Yahshua” instead of the Greek name Jesus, where the “Yah” in Yahshua is the contracted form of “Yahweh,” as found in the expression “Hallelu-YAH!” A detailed explanation of my reasons for this is found at my web site: http://pillar-of-enoch.com.

All Scriptural quotations in this book (unless otherwise noted) are from the PC Study Bible using either the Holy Bible: New International Version ©, Copyright © 1973, 1978, 1984 by the International Bible Society; or the New King James Version of the Bible, Thomas Nelson, Inc. © 1982. The printed edition of the New International Version referred to in the Bibliography was also used. The origins of all quoted Scriptures from these two Bibles are identified with the abbreviation (NIV) for the New International Version and for the New King James Version. Due to copyright restrictions on these editions of the Bible, longer quotations of the Bible are abridged. To see the full content of each abbreviated passage, please utilize a full translation of the Bible. For the Ethiopian Book of Enoch, or 1 Enoch, the translation by R. H. Charles was used as listed in the bibliography, unless otherwise noted.
