The Language of God in Prophecy: 4th in The Language of God Series
Helena Lehman
Pillar of Enoch Ministry Books (2006)
ISBN 9780975913130
Reviewed by Paige Lovitt for Reader Views (6/07)

"The Language of God in Prophecy" is part of the "The Language of God" book series. It is the fourth book in this series. The author, Helena Lehman, has extensively researched the mysterious prophetic revelations that appear to be hidden in the words of the Bible. She also discusses the prophecies that appear in other ancient cultures such as in the Great Pyramid, the Great Sphinx, and Teotihuacan. She discusses how these prophecies relate to the end times of mankind and the return of Christ.

Lehman feels that we are at the end of the times discussed in Revelation." She offers Biblical and extra-Biblical evidence that Christ will be returning soon. She states, "It is my hope that many people will find this book's revealed teachings efficacious in their spiritual walk with God, and that many will be saved through it before Christ's Second Coming."

In addition to the discussion of her extensive research, the book also offers detailed text charts, illustrations, a comprehensive Table of Contents, Bibliography and Index. If you find this book to be as fascinating as I did, your journey will not stop here, you will continue on by reading books that are listed in the bibliography.

"The Language of God in Prophecy" is heavy reading. It is not a book to be read sitting on a crowded beach or in a place where there are easy distractions. It is the type of book that you read a section of, and then you take the time to process it. I have never read a book that covered this topic as comprehensively as this one. I appreciate the amount of research and thought that Ms. Lehman put into this text. I highly recommend reading this.