Is the Bible Myth or History? A New Book Challenges Secular Views

Is it possible that the Bible is a far more accurate history than most secular scholars will admit? Bible Scholar Helena Lehman has written a thought-provoking new look at biblical history called "The Language of God in History" that challenges claims that the Bible is mostly myth. Topics in this illustrated 550-page book include:

- Scientific facts pointing to a recent creation of mankind, and the Earth
- The probable location of the now lost Garden of Eden, and the facts concerning the first human couple, their fall into sin, and their first children
- How the prophet Enoch, and the patriarchs Noah, Shem, and Abraham viewed God and the stars through the divine language of allegory
- How our ancestors in the Old and New World knew how to read the Zodiac story, and immortalized its message in their religious monuments
- How the Great Pyramid and Sphinx were likely built by the descendents of Seth as a record of their faith in God, and belief in a Messiah to come
- How Dinosaur bones, as the probable remains of the Nephilim, are not millions of years old, but were buried during the Great Flood
- How the Nephilim corrupted the Star Gospel, led humanity astray, and encouraged the development of False Religion
- How the Israelites were commissioned by God to destroy the Nephilim in the Promised Land, but partially failed, and how their failure has adversely affected human history
- How the history and purpose of the Kingdom of Israel is irrevocably linked to the Davidic and Palestinian Covenants, and what its prophetic split into two kingdoms means in relation to the Ten Lost Tribes

"The Language of God in History" gives a brilliant and clear defense of biblical history, and reveals how our ancestors may have creatively designed their religious monuments to reflect the spiritual allegories God wrote into our Universe. It also explores the history of the Kingdom of Israel, and delves into the age, and true nature of dinosaurs, and their possible links to the Behemoth, Leviathan, and Nephilim spoken of in the Bible.

For those who wish to discover history in a way that fully supports the biblical record, "The Language of God in History" does just that. It is the third of a four book series that explores the many different ways God reveals Himself to us through symbols. Helena's books, along with excerpts, free articles, and downloads on related topics are available at the Pillar of Enoch Ministry Web site at <http://pillar-of-enoch.com>. In addition, all the Language of God Series books are available at local and Internet bookstores, and through Ingram/Spring Arbor distributors.

Helena Lehman is an expert on the connection between the Gospel in the Stars, the Great Pyramid, the Desert Tabernacle, and the Bible, and she is available to speak on the bulleted topics above.
