Judaic Meanings for 8 Objects in Our Solar System

Greco-Roman and Hebrew Names for Eight Objects in our Solar System	"The Celestial Seven" and Earth: Associated Jewish and Messianic Meanings and Themes
Sun - Hebrew: Shemesh, Light; Chammah, Brilliance; Charshah, Heat	Purity, Fairness, and Judgment of God, Wisdom (enlightenment) given by God, the power and presence of God in nature
Moon - Hebrew: Levanah, White	Israel's Spiritual renewal, God's reflection in the Messiah
Mercury - Hebrew: Kohav, Sun Planet; Chammah, to Burn or Sparkle	A scribe or attendant on the Sun; a herald of God's decrees and recorder of God's judgments
Venus - Hebrew: Nogah, Brightness, Illumination, Splendor	The Messiah as the bright Morning Star; trusting in God, who gives light and guides our path
Earth - Hebrew: Eretz, Land, Soil, Flesh	Considered Center of the Universe, Home to Yahshua & Mankind
Mars - Hebrew: M'adim, Blood color or blood strength	Blood atonement, blood sacrifice; God's judgment against sin and the death and destruction caused by it.
Jupiter - Hebrew: Tzedeq, Righteousness	Planet of the Messiah; symbol of God's righteous representative
Saturn - Hebrew: Shabbatai, the Sabbath	The Sabbath rest; ceasing work to contemplate God's greatness and praise God for His goodness; redemption and blessing